We have been very impressed with On View Security. Beginning with our initial meeting they listened to our needs and concerns and were responsive to them all.

On View Security has been very communicative with us by sending informational and detailed reports and emailing and/or calling us when an emergency has arisen. They return emails and phone calls immediately. Also, they are very professional in their demeanor, uniforms, and vehicles. We are confident that they will be on-site and that they are capable of handling any situation that may come their way.
